AT the Court at Kenſington, the 28th Day of May, 1746.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

Whereas there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Dr. Henry Plumptre, Preſident of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Phyſick in London, ſetting forth, that the ſaid Preſident and College have, with great Care, Pains and Induſtry, reviſed, corrected and reformed a Book by them formerly publiſhed, intituled, Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis, preſcribing and directing the Manner of preparing all Sorts of Medicines therein contained, together with the true Weights and Meaſures by which they ought to be made: Which Book is now perfected, and ready to be publiſhed, and is made more extenſive and beneficial to the Publick than the former, and, it is conceived, will contribute to the Good of his Majeſty's Subjects, by preventing all Deceits, Differences and Incertainties in the making or compounding of Medicines, if, for the Future, the Manner and Forms preſcribed therein, ſhould be practiſed by Apothecaries and others in their Compoſitions of Medicines, &c. The Memorialiſt therefore moſt humbly prays, that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to inforce the Obſervance thereof in ſuch Manner as to his Majeſty ſhall ſeem meet: — His Majeſty this Day took the ſaid Memorial into his Royal Conſideration, and being deſirous to provide in all Caſes for the common Good of his People, and being perſuaded that the Eſtabliſhing the general Uſe of the ſaid Book may tend to the Prevention of ſuch Deceits in the making and compounding Medicines, wherein the Lives and Health of his Majeſty's Subjects are ſo highly concerned, hath therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Privy-Council, hereby to notify to all Apothecaries and others concerned, to the Intent they may not pretend Ignorance thereof, that the ſaid Book called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis, is perfected and ready to be publiſhed: And his Majeſty doth therefore ſtrictly require, charge and command all and ſingular Apothecaries and others, whoſe Buſineſs it is to compound Medicines, or diſtil Oyls or Waters, or make other Extracts within any Part of his Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, that they, and every of them, immediately after the ſaid Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis ſhall be printed and publiſhed, do not compound or make any Medicine or Medicinable Receipt or Preſcription, or diſtil any Oyl or Waters, or make other Extracts that are or ſhall be in the ſaid Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis mentioned or named, in any other Manner or Form than is or ſhall be directed, preſcribed, and ſet down by the ſaid Book, and according to the Weights and Meaſures that are or ſhall be therein limited, except it ſhall be by the ſpecial Direction or Preſcription of ſome learned Phyſician in that Behalf. And his Majeſty doth hereby declare, that the Offenders to the contrary ſhall not only incur his Majeſty's juſt Diſpleaſure, but be proceeded againſt for ſuch their Contempt and Offences, according to the utmoſt Severity of Law.

William Sharpe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerſet, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Earl Powlett to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Bridgwater, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the late ſignal Victory, obtained (through the Bleſſing of God) by your Majeſty's Forces over the Rebels, under the auſpicious Command and Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke; an Event that has not only entirely diſpelled the gloomy Proſpect of all the Horrors of Popery, of abject and ignominious Slavery, of Tyranny and arbitrary Power, but has alſo effectually ſecured to us the free Profeſſion and open Exerciſe of our moſt pure and holy Religion, the undiſturbed Poſſeſſion of our Properties, and the full Enjoyment of our Laws and Liberties.

Happy are the People who are bleſs'd with ſuch invaluable Privileges, and happy ever be the Prince, who thinks them deſerving of his Care and Protection.

To you therefore, Great Sir, are the united Thanks of all Engliſhmen due, for that eminent Inſtance of your Affection to them, in inſpiring your Army with the inimitable Example and Courage of our illuſtrious Hero, your Royal Son, who, ſuperior to all Difficulties, and diſmayed by no Dangers, with his uſual Intrepidity, hazarded his Life in the Cauſe of his Country, has broken the Neck of Rebellion, and has been the glorious Inſtrument of preſerving our moſt excellent Conſtitution.

That he may always continue the peculiar Care, and live the Favourite of Heaven; that your Majeſty may be bleſſed with a long and happy Reign over a free and obedient People; and that your Royal Progeny may govern theſe Kingdoms to lateſt Poſterity, are the ardent Prayers of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects. May 26, 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Aſſiſtants, Wardens and Fellowſhip of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, having been tranſmitted by Matthew Ridley, Eſq; their Governor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Aſſiſtants, Wardens and Fellowſhip of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Governor, Aſſiſtants, Wardens, and Fellowſhip of Merchant Adventurers of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, beg Leave moſt humbly to preſent to your Majeſty, our ſincere and fervent Congratulations on the late glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms againſt an infatuated Number of your rebellious Subjects, aided and ſupported by the inveterate Enemies to the Proteſtant Religion, and to the Peace of theſe Nations, with a View to eſtabliſh Popery, with its conſtant Attendants, arbitrary Power and Slavery.

When we look back on the imminent Dangers that threatened us, we have great Reaſon to be thankful to Almighty God, who hath ſo ſignally interpoſed and preſerved us; and in a particular Manner are we bounden to expreſs our thankful Acknowledgements to your Majeſty for your paternal Care of your People, in ſending his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland to command your Troops, a Teſtimony to the whole World, that the Intereſts of your Majeſty and of your Subjects are interwoven and inſeparable.

The Valour, Prudence, and Activity of his Royal Highneſs have ſo manifeſtly appeared, that all true Britons muſt confeſs, that the Preſervation and Eſtabliſhment of the valuable Privileges they now enjoy, wholly depend on your Majeſty and your Royal Off-ſpring being their Defenders. And we moſt earneſtly hope, that this Rebellion, which has thrown your Kingdoms into great Confuſion, will in the End prove their Advantage, by fixing the Wavering, convincing the deluded Part of your Majeſty's Subjects, and deſtroying all future Attempts of the Enemies of your Majeſty and the Britiſh People, in their Endeavours to impoſe a popiſh Pretender upon theſe Nations.

We pray, that your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects; that your Majeſty's Arms may be victorious in the noble Cauſe in which you are now engaged, in aſſerting and defending the Liberties of Europe; and that the Crown of theſe Realms may for ever continue on the Head of your ſacred Majeſty, and thoſe deſcended from your Royal Houſe.

Given under our common Seal the 31ſt Day of May, 1746.

Matthew Ridley, Governor.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Barrons and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Argyll, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Barrons and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of Peace, Barrons and and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and to offer our moſt hearty and ſincere Congratulations on the glorious and compleat Victory obtained over the Rebels, inveterate and irreconcileable Enemies to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, by your Majeſty's Forces, under the Command of that incomparable Prince and General his Royal Highneſs William Duke of Cumberland, our Deliverer (under God and your Majeſty) from Oppreſſion and Slavery.

His Royal Highneſs's diſtinguiſhed Behaviour and Conduct upon this great Occaſion, muſt afford your Majeſty, and all the Friends to our happy Conſtitution, the trueſt Satisfaction, as it is the juſt and natural Effect of your Royal Example and Inſtructions; and gives the moſt pleaſing Aſſurance of what great Things may be farther expected from his Royal Highneſs upon all Occaſions, where the Honour and Intereſt of this Nation, and the Cauſe of Liberty and Religion, are concerned.

We have, and always will retain, a deep and indeleble Senſe of the happy Effects and Conſequences which muſt follow from this glorious Victory, a perfect Deliverance from our Fears of Popery and arbitrary Power, and their inſeparable Concomitants, Ignorance, Cruelty and Slavery, beſides becoming a Province to, and receiving Laws and Model of Government from our natural and irreconcileable Enemy the French King.

We have alſo a juſt and no leſs laſting Senſe of the great and ſingular Happineſs and Security which we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and merciful Adminiſtration; our Religion, Laws, Liberty and Property, not only undiſturbed and uninvaded, but with the utmoſt Care and Diligence ſupported and preſerved to us, Bleſſings we ſcarcely ever taſted before the happy Revolution under King William, of immortal Memory, which, among many other ineſtimable Bleſſings, conveyed unto us that of the Succeſſion of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe.

As we are confident, that by your Majeſty's Wiſdom, and that of your loyal Parliament, proper and effectual Meaſures will be taken for rooting out the Seeds of our late Diſturbances, and ſecuring us againſt their ſpringing up in Time coming; ſo we moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will chearfully contribute, as far as in us lies, to attain ſuch deſireable Purpoſes, and to ſupport your Majeſty's Government, as the beſt and ſureſt Way of expreſſing our Gratitude to you, and ſecuring the Religion and Liberty of our Country.

That Almighty God, King of Kings, may ſtill protect your Majeſty; and that the ſame good Succeſs may always attend your Arms by Sea and Land, till you ſee the Liberties of Europe in general, and the Peace and Happineſs of your Kingdoms ſettled upon a firm and laſting Foundation; and that theſe Kingdoms may never want one of your Royal Houſe to ſway their Sceptre, and another to lead their Armies to Victory and Renown; and that our young Hero, his Royal Highneſs the Duke, may continue to be the Terror of Rebels, and the Scourge of Tyrants, are the moſt ardent and ſincere Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of Peace, Barrons and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright. Subſcribed in their Preſence, and at their Appointment, by David Maxwell of Bardrochwood, their Preſes.

David Maxwell.

The following Addreſs of the Governour and Members of his Majeſty's Council of Barbados, having been tranſmitted by Sir Thomas Robinſon, Bart. their Governor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governour and the Members of his Majeſty's Council of Barbados, in Council, on the Eighteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governour and Members of your Majeſty's Council, beg Leave to offer up to the Throne our ſincere Acknowledgments for all thoſe Indulgencies of Government which have from time to time aſſiſted the declining Manufactures of this Iſland, and ſtill continue to preſerve them from greater Difficulties, by propitiouſly ſecuring our Trade and Correſpondence, as far as human Vigilance can, from the Dangers of the preſent War. Accept, Dread Sir, our peculiar Thanks for that ſignal Mark of Bounty, by which your Majeſty, in your Royal Condeſcenſion to our Prayer, has been pleaſed ſo early and ſo graciouſly to ſuccour theſe your remoter Colonies, at a Criſis when the Powers of France had ſurrounded, and ſeem'd to threaten our Lives and Fortunes: So imminent a Danger, obviated by ſo effectual an Interpoſition, muſt from deep Conviction teach the Britiſh Subject, that your Majeſty's Cares are extended far and wide as your Dominions.

The Diſtreſs, which the Enemy now ſuſtains from the total Deſtruction of their trading Fleet, by the Activity of Vice Admiral Townſhend in theſe Southern Seas, conſider'd with the

the late Reduction of Cape Breton in North America, affords us at once the Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty on the double Succeſs of your Arms; an Interruption ſo fatal to their Commerce, and ſo important an Acquiſition to our own, gives us full Aſſurance, that while Trade and Navigation remain Characteriſticks of the Engliſh Name, ſo copious a Nurſery of both will deſcend an unalienable Member of her Dominions: To a People animated with this Confidence, the Event has communicated ſuch Tranſport as would have been unknown to the Royal Breaſt, had not your Majeſty from your moſt early Relation to the Crown of Great Britain, adopted all thoſe Paſſions for the true Intereſt of the Subject, which Nature has implanted in the Subject for his own.

Poſſeſs'd with theſe Sentiments of your Royal Heart, and ſpirited with repeated Experience of your Love to the Britiſh Name and Conſtitution, permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, with Horror and Amazement, to reſent the unnatural Rebellion ſo impiouſly kindled againſt the Father of his People: To the glorious Revolution our Fathers ow'd their Deliverance from Bondage both in Church and State; from that Period they, as well as their Sons, have enjoy'd thoſe Liberties in the one, as have been limitted by the Laws and Maxims of a free Government; and that Profeſſion in the other, as has been conformable to the Principles and Tenets of the moſt pure Religion: With how deep Deſign then has the execrable Plan been concerted to ſtrip our Poſterity of both, by rebelliouſly ſeeking to turn back the Priviledges which have revolv'd from that auſpicious Æra, and by traiterouſly conſpiring to exterminate thoſe ſacred Bleſſings which muſt end with the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant and illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

May the ſame Divine Providence that hitherto has watched over the civil and religious Rights of Britain, preſerve your Majeſty, as the preſent Defender of our Faith and Freedom: May it in Mercy to theſe Kingdoms continue down its Protection with your Royal Line, that this Nation may in future never want an hereditary Guardian, while it may in future be diſtracted by an hereditary Rebellion, as often as the Councils of France ſhall inſtigate the Treaſon, or the Superſtitions of Rome inflame the Traytor.

To confirm theſe Rights, and to ſecure to ourſelves and Poſterity theſe invaluable Bleſſings, give us Leave, with Hearts full of the moſt cordial Duty, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we have not only with our Lips unfeignedly abjured all foreign Claims to your Throne, but we ſhall be ever ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to aſſert the undoubted Title of our Sovereign and his Succeſſors; not more firmly eſtabliſh'd by the Laws, than the Affections of the People: And that we may ſhew forth the Stability and Attachment of this your Majeſty's Iſland, we will, on all Occaſions, convince the foreign and domeſtick Enemies of your Crown, that thoſe Ties of Conſcience and Allegiance which connect the Subject to their Sovereign, are on both Sides ſo cloſely riveted, that they muſt in vain expect a Revulſion of the one without the other.

We are, Dread Sir,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the Grand Jury for the Iſland of Barbados, having been tranſmitted by Sir Thomas Robinſon, Bart. their Governor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury for the Iſland of Barbados, at a Court of Grand Seſſions, Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery, and General Seſſions of the Peace held for the Body of the ſaid Iſland, in the Town of St. Michael, on Tueſday and Wedneſday, the 10th and 11th of December, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE the Hearts and Hands of your Majeſty's Subjects of this Iſland in general are employed in thoſe Prayers and Offices, which at this Juncture become the moſt dutiful and loyal of Men; We the Grand Inqueſt beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and thus impanell'd in the Service of our Country, jointly to pour forth thoſe Sentiments of Duty and Obedience, in our publick Station, which as Individuals, we ſhall endeavour to practiſe in our private Lives and Example.

With moſt profound Gratitude we acknowledge the large Share we enjoy in the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; which as it has hitherto preſerv'd, ſo may it long continue in the ſame illuſtrious Succeſſion, ſtill to preſerve to us and our Poſterity, both our civil and religious Liberties.

It is with Conſternation we have heard of the moſt daring Attempt that is form'd againſt your Majeſty's Crown and Kingdoms; and however diſtant it is our Fortune to be remov'd from the Scene of Rebellion, yet our incorrupted Loyalty brings every Danger near us, that in your Majeſty's Perſon and Family threatens the Proteſtant Cauſe, and the Liberty of the Nation: We therefore take this Occaſion to renew to your Majeſty the Aſſurances of our inviolable

Fidelity, to which not only our Inclination and Intereſt, but the ſacred Ties of Conſcience and Allegiance oblige us.

Was any Obligation yet wanting to enforce a Duty ſo incumbent, the Supplications of this Iſland ſo lately offer'd, and ſo early attended to by your Majeſty, in ſending to the Succour of your People a ſtrong Squadron, under the Command of Vice Admiral Townſhend, would call for the moſt ſincere Acknowledgements, that Subjects, truly conſcious of their Sovereign's paternal Care, could preſume to offer; theſe therefore we again implore your moſt ſacred Majeſty to receive, and at the ſame Time to have ſuch Confidence in the Inhabitants of this Iſland, as to believe that we ſhall be ready to aſſert the Rights of our Sovereign, with thoſe Lives and Fortunes which we owe to his Royal Protection.

We congratulate your Majeſty on the Reduction of Cape Breton; the Joy it inſpires in us, is equal to the Mortification it gives your Enemies: A Place of ſuch Importance to the Support, Trade and Navigation of the Kingdom, thus added to the Britiſh Dominions, gives the American Colonies, as Partakers in the Succeſs of your Arms, Room to preſume and hope, that the one, as a permanent Member of the other, will deſcend together to your Majeſty's remoteſt Poſterity.

May Divine Providence, that has placed your Majeſty, not only at the Head of the Proteſtant Intereſt, but firſt in the glorious Cauſe of Liberty, give your Majeſty the early Satisfaction of ſeeing both more firmly eſtabliſhed than ever, by the Influence of your Councils, and the Succeſs of your Arms. We are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the Council and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Jamaica, having been tranſmitted by Edward Trelawny, Eſq; Governor of the ſaid Iſland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Council and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Jamaica.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Aſſembly of this your Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, having experienced the many Bleſſings flowing from the Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Majeſty's Government, ſhould be wanting in Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty, and in Regard to ourſelves, did we not embrace this the earlieſt Opportunity at our Meeting, to expreſs our Horror and Deteſtation of the unnatural Rebellion raiſed in Scotland againſt your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity, and the Peace and Tranquillity of your Kingdoms, in favour of a popiſh Pretender, for introducing a Civil as well as an Eccleſiaſtical Tyranny, by the Subverſion of our Laws and Religion, the beſt calculated of any to ſupport the true Greatneſs of Kings, and promote the real Happineſs of the Subject.

Our Rights and Liberties, aſſerted at the Revolution, and ſecured by our Deliverer King William the Third, of ever glorious and immortal Memory, confirm'd by eſtabliſhing the Crown in your illuſtrious Houſe, and continued to us by the Succeſſion of your Royal Father, and your Majeſty, muſt ever be eſteemed the moſt diſtinguiſhing Bleſſings of the Britiſh People, as we are highly ſenſible that theſe can be perpetuated to us and our Poſterity, by no other human Means, than that of preſerving the Throne to your Majeſty and Family; and that to unſettle the one, is the ſureſt and ſpeedieſt Method to deſtroy the other. We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty with the ſincereſt Hearts, full of Duty and Loyalty, of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Royal Line. For the Defence of theſe, with whoſe Welfare and Proſperity every thing we hold valuable is ſo inſeparably link'd, we ſhould have been as ready as any of your Majeſty's Subjects, to have riſqued our Lives and Fortunes, had not our great Diſtance from the Scene of Action made it impoſſible for us to bear a perſonal Share in Vindication of ſo glorious a Cauſe.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure, we obſerve your Majeſty ſo well guarded by the Wiſdom of your Councils, and ſo firmly ſeated in the Affections of your People, that the Strength and Policy of our natural and moſt inveterate Enemy, France, and the intriguing Machinations of the Court of Rome, aided by the Zeal and Bigotry of Spain, combin'd together, could incite, by their execrable Devices to this long contriv'd Rebellion, but ſome few of the weak and wicked of your Subjects, whoſe Ignorance had render'd them liable to be deluded into the worſt Deſigns; whoſe want of Property hinder'd their being ſenſible of your Majeſty's Protection, of one of the greateſt Bleſſings of Life, and whoſe Uſe to Violence and Plunder had ſubjected them to the Correction of thoſe Laws of which their Idleneſs and Pride had made them incapable of enjoying the Benefit.

That all wicked and traiterous Attempts againſt your Majeſty may be blaſted and diſappointed by that great Being who Protects and Rewards juſt and righteous Kings; and that you may long reign beloved by your Subjects, and dreaded by your Enemies, we offer up our moſt ſincere and fervent Prayers; and when your Majeſty ſhall be taken from us, us, may there never be wanting one of your illuſtrious Line to ſucceed to your Throne.

Accept, moſt gracious Sovereign, theſe only Marks we can ſend of our Loyalty and Gratitude, from a Colony, which though diſtant from your Perſon, is equally ſenſible with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, of the happy Influence of your Royal Virtues.

Paſſed the Council the 8th Day of April, 1746.

Ch. Price, Speaker.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Succeſs of your Arms, in ſuppreſſing the impious and deſperate Rebellion, which hath for ſome Time raged in North Britain, and diſturbed, or threatened, the Peace of theſe Kingdoms.

An Event of ſuch Concernment, which ſecures to us the Enjoyment of all that can be moſt dear to Men, our Religion, Liberty and Laws, Bleſſings inſeparable from your Majeſty's juſt Government over us, and to be preſerved only by ſupporting it, muſt fill the Breaſt of every true Proteſtant, and Lover of his Country, with the ſincereſt Joy.

The grievous Oppreſſions endured by our Proteſtant Anceſtors of this Kingdom, and yet freſh in the Memory of ſome amongſt us; unavoidable Effects of popiſh Bigotry, armed with arbitrary Power, muſt convince us of the great Importance of this Succeſs, by the Terror of thoſe Evils, from the Apprehenſion of which, it hath delivered us.

Our Joy on this happy Event, receives ſtill new Addition, from the glorious Inſtrument of it, his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland; whom, from his early Virtues, deliberate Valour, and indefatigable Activity, we juſtly look upon, as raiſed up by Providence, to be a Defender of your Majeſty's Throne, and an Aſſertor of the Britiſh Honour, and military Glory.

May all the Enemies of your Majeſty be in like Manner defeated and confounded; and may that pure Religion, and thoſe Arts, which we are in a peculiar Manner inſtituted to defend and cultivate, flouriſh, under the Protection of your moſt ſacred Majeſty, and your Royal Line.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious and important Victory obtained over the Rebels by your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.

The Violence and Ravages of that deteſtable Rebellion did not reach us, however we ſeverely felt the Conſequences of it, in the Decay of Credit, and Stagnation of Trade; but our Concern for the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, and for the Welfare of Great Britain, more nearly affected us.

If the Abettors of the Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown had ſucceeded in their unnatural Attempt, nothing leſs could be expected than a total Subverſion of our religious and civil Rights.

We ſhould fail in our Duty, if we did not, in the moſt grateful Manner, acknowledge the timely Care and Precautions taken by your Majeſty towards the Extinguiſhment of that inteſtine War, and particularly, as your Majeſty was pleaſed to appoint his Royal Highneſs the Duke to lead the Army, deſtined for the Suppreſſion of it; the early Proof which he has given of his Courage and Conduct in this glorious Atchievement, as it muſt be pleaſing to your Majeſty, ſo it encreaſes our Joy on this happy Occaſion, that the Liberty of Great Britain, and of this Kingdom, and of a great Part of Europe, is owing to a Prince deſcended from your Majeſty.

In

In the moſt humble Manner we take Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall always, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, exert ourſelves in the Support of your Majeſty's moſt undoubted Right to the Crown, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereto affixed the 15th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, 1746.

Florence, May 24, N. S. The Courier that arrived from Vienna on the 20th, brought Orders to the Regency to ſend to Piſa 1500 Men out of the Regiment of Guards, as many out of the ſecond Regiment, and 800 Horſe Militia, with a proper Train of Artillery, either to canton or encamp there as the commanding Officer ſhall judge moſt proper.

Whitehall, June 4.

Yeſterday an Expreſs arrived from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland with the following Intelligence.

Fort Auguſtus, May 27. We arrived here the 24th, with 11 Battalions of Foot, and the Duke of Kingſton's Horſe. His Royal Highneſs propoſes next Thurſday to ſend Houghton's Battalion half Way to Fort William, to take Poſt and ſecure the Road, and to go thither himſelf the ſame Day, and to return the next; and on Saturday that Battalion is to go into Fort William, to relieve the Remains of Guiſe's. Lord Loudoun was with his Royal Highneſs Yeſterday, by whom we learn, that having marched with the Highlanders under his Command, and ſome regular Troops, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Howard, and Major Lockart, againſt the Camerons and M'Donalds, who were aſſembled to the Number of 300, for the Security of Lochiel and Barriſdale, they immediately diſperſed on the Appearance of his advanc'd Parties, Lochiel ordering every one to ſhift for himſelf: Upon their Diſperſion, the Camerons ſent a Perſon to deſire they might be admitted to bring in their Arms, and ſubmit themſelves to the King's Mercy. Lord Loudoun is now gone into Badenoch for two or three Days, to diſarm the Rebels there, and it is thought they will immediately ſubmit, as the M'Pherſons have already in great Meaſure done, to Brigadier General Mordaunt, in his Paſſage through their Country to Perth. As the Rebels are at preſent in a Manner diſperſed, his Royal Highneſs does not propoſe to ſtay here above a Week longer, except any thing extraordinary ſhould happen, but will march South by the King's Road to Crief.

The following Advices were alſo received upon the 3d Inſtant from Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, May 30. We do not hear at preſent that there is any conſiderable Body of Rebels together any where, the Generality having ſubmitted to the King's Mercy. Colonel Campbell came to Fort William upon the 24th, and upon the 25th join'd General Campbell at Appin. Upon the 27th they were to embark at Dunſtafnage, in order to take Poſſeſſion of Stronhan, where it is reported that ſome few of the Rebels ſtill continue in Arms. The Tranſports from Newcaſtle arrived at Leith on Wedneſday, as did the Tranſports from Inverneſs the Night before. As Proviſions and Forage for the Whole came by thoſe from Newcaſtle, they are making the proper Diſtribution, and taking in Water, &c. and will be ready to ſail with the Heſſians in eight or ten Days.

Admiralty Office, June 7.

In Purſuance of his Majeſty's Pleaſure, the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty have appointed Richard Leſtock, Eſq; Admiral of the Blue.

Captain Rodney, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Eagle, on the 24th paſt, fell in with and took, in the Latitude of 49 °. 30 ′. the Eſperance, a Spaniſh Privateer from St. Sebaſtian, of 16 Guns, and 136 Men, commanded by Don Franciſco Bonocili, and has carried her into Kinſale.

Whitehall, May 30, 1746.

Whereas it hath been humbly repreſented to the King, that on Wedneſday the 14th of May, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, John Milles, Eſq; was attacked in David ſtreet, between Groſvenor-ſtreet and Mount-ſtreet, by four Foot-pads armed with Piſtols, one of whom ſtopt the ſaid John Milles's Mouth, another of them held his Hands over his Eyes, whilſt the others holding him faſt, and threatning to murder him if he made the leaſt Noiſe or Reſiſtance, rifled his Pockets, and took from him a Silk Purſe with ſome Guineas in it, a Gold Watch, with a Steel Chain, and two Seals ſet in Gold, beſides ſeveral Keys and other Things: His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concern'd in the ſaid Robbery, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he, they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Gentlemen of the Veſtry of the Pariſh of St. George Hanover Square, do hereby promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds for ſuch Diſcovery, to be paid on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Simon Parry, their Veſtry Clerk, at his Houſe in Conduit Street.
